

Conservatory of the Arts
PHOTOGRAPHY 3 HONORS
(9TH - 12TH GRADE)
Educator: Mrs. Macey Norton
2018-2019

CLASS INTRODUCTION:

Students will advance their previous education of photography with more practice and more concepts. They will have the opportunity to have their work published in the school's yearbook and other publishing. They will create portfolios which will aid them in future college applications and job opportunities.

CLASS EXPECTATIONS:

- ~Must come to class prepared to PURSUE EXCELLENCE!
- ~Students must be ON TIME and PREPARED for every class. This is an extremely pivotal lesson that will be necessary in this class and beyond.
- ~All classroom materials are provided therefore you are to take proper care of computers and equipment.
- ~ Kindness and Hard Work are ALWAYS expected.

Grades are based on:

- ~Participation
- ~Classroom Behavior
- ~ Assignments
- ~Projects
- ~Quizzes

PROJECTS:

This is a project based class so projects are test grades. Since this is an honors class, much is required. The student will be given subjects, events and full projects that are their responsibility to cover in full. Some events will be after school and the student will be required to sign up to attend a few of them to document.

CLASS EQUIPMENT AND RESOURCES:

The computers, software, and camera equipment is provided but if treated poorly, broken, or stolen the student will be charged for replacements or fixes. If the computers are used for inappropriateness, video games, online shopping, or other misuses not guided in class, the student will lose privileges of using the computer.

All pictures created on The King's Academy's campus or with TKA equipment are property of TKA. If photos, deemed inappropriate by the teacher, are created consequences will be enforced. Also, photos are subject to be used for TKA marketing and advertising.

SUPPLIES NEEDED:

- ½ inch three ring binder
- Notebook paper

CONSERVATORY FEE: $150 per semester – Billed through tuition

The Conservatory fee was established in order to help with numerous department expenses incurred on an annual basis.
